1. Reading and Vocabulary

My Life

My name is Regina Ayunda. I am 19 years old. I am a student at a community college in my town. I am majoring in education. I have wavy black hair, round eyes, and white skin. I have an average tall. My father tells me that I look like my mother.

During the pandemic, my activities are just at home. After having breakfast, I water the plant and help my mother clean the house. At a half past seven, I follow my lecture by online. I finish my lecture at one o'clock.

I live in a small house. It has five rooms: there are two bedrooms, a living room, a bathroom, and a kitchen. Indeed, it is a small house; but I like living in here for wasting my spare time. My bedroom is my favorite room. Its wall color is blue, which is my favorite color. It has one comfortable bed that faces the window. Every morning the sun shines through my window and wakes me up. On the corner of the room is my desk where I usually study and do my assignments.

4. WritingDescriptive text

Descriptive text is a type of text which is used by the writer or speaker to describe particular thing, person, animal, place and or event to the readers or hearers. The purpose of the descriptive text is to describe, represent or reveal a person or an object, either abstract or concrete.

a. Generic Structure

When writing descriptive text, there are some generic structures that we can follow. The arrangement is:

- 1) Identification: contains about the introduction of a person, place, animal or object that will be described
- 2) Description: contains a description of something such as animal, things, place or person by describing its features, forms, colors, or anything related to what the writer describe.

b. Language Feature of a Descriptive Text

- 1) Specific participant: has a certain object, is not common and unique (only one). for example: Bandengan beach, my house, Borobudur temple, uncle Jim, and others
- 2) The use of the adjective (an adjective) to clarify the noun, for example: a beautiful beach, a handsome man, the famous place in Jepara, and others
- 3) The use of simple present tense: The sentence pattern used is simple present because it tells the fact of the object described.
- 4) Action verb: verbs that show an activity (for example, run, sleep, walk, cut, etc)
